

HOW THE UNIVERSITY OF KENT IS

HELPING TO ACHIEVE ZERO WASTE

#1 Reduction and redistribution

Gleaning – prevent spoilage on the plant

#2 High value extraction

High nutrient powder from cherry skins left as waste from creating juice

#3 New biomaterial development

Extracting cellulose to create an alternative to plastic

#4 Reprocessing to add value

Biochar for fertiliser, black soldier fly larvae